

Save The Date: Ohio Art League's One Night November 9
Ohio's Longest-Running Arts Organization Presents a Live and Silent Art Auction

COLUMBUS, OH (July 29, 2013) – Ohio Art League's annual One Night soiree, featuring live and silent art auctions, will take place on Saturday, November 9 from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m., with a VIP early-entry event preceding, at 400 W. Rich St. in Franklinton.

Built around a unique theme and venue each year, One Night auctions hundreds of works from OAL member artists, offers live entertainment and attracts hundreds of artists and art enthusiasts. Ticket and art sales benefit the League and artists receive partial profits from each of their pieces sold. Sponsors include 400 W. Rich, The Columbus Foundation, The Greater Columbus Arts Council, Limited Brands and the Ohio Arts Council. To sponsor, contact Leanna Gonzalez at sponsor@oal.org.

New This Year

Inspired by the varied textures of the new event space at 400 W. Rich, this year's theme is Elements. Pre- and post-event socials will take place at Strongwater Food and Spirits, which will open later this summer adjacent to the venue.

Call For Entries

Entry is open to OAL members only and works will be accepted August 9 through November 7. The entry form will be available at oal.org. Application for membership is available at oal.org/join_us.

Volunteer Opportunities

Those interested in volunteering to help plan or run the event can sign up at oal.org/volunteer.

More detailed information about One Night: Elements will be forthcoming.
