Ohio's Longest-Running Arts Organization Presents a Live and Silent Auction Honoring Members and Local Artists

August 25, 2014 – COLUMBUS, OHIO – Ohio Art League's annual "One Night" fundraiser, will be held on Friday, October 10, 2014 from 6:00-11:00pm. This year, OAL will be paying "Tribute" to member artists spanning the organization's 105-year history. VIP and general admission guests will join us for a night of themed cocktails, music, a VIP preview hour, costumed photo booth by We Are Glitterati, colorful company, and, of course, the chance to purchase original artwork from Ohio's leading contemporary, professional artists in live and silent auctions.

Built around a unique theme and venue each year, One Night auctions hundreds of works from OAL member artists, offers local, lively entertainment and attracts hundreds of artists and art lovers alike. Ticket and art sales benefit OAL and artists receive a percentage of the profit from each piece sold. Sponsors include, The Columbus Foundation, The Greater Columbus Arts Council, Limited Brands and the Ohio Arts Council. Donate or become a sponsor at <http://www.oal.org/sponsor> or contact sponsor@oal.org.

New This Year

The Young Collectors Series is a small works submission alternative to the live/silent auctions, specifically designed to make art accessible to patrons of all income levels. All submitted works are 12 x 12 " or smaller and priced at $75.00 or less.

The cuisine will be inspired by the rich history of artistic movements, dating back to OAL's foundation in 1909 and will mirror movements such as the Impressionism, Cubism, Minimalism, and Realism eras.

This year's One Night theme is Tribute in which OAL and its sponsors will pay homage to those members and artists of the past, present, and future.
